

Cab Drivers Attempt Further Wage Talks

Yellow Cab company has rejected a recent arbitration board award to union taxi drivers but union officials are hopeful of negotiating an agreement with the firm.

A provincial arbitration board awarded drivers employed by Yellow Cab Co. an increase in weekly pay from $25 to $28 with provisions for revised earnings as cost-of-living fluctuates.

Secretary David Erickson of International Teamsters and Chauffeurs Local 514 said today that they expect to settle the dispute with the company in a meeting being held at a meeting between the union and company next Tuesday morning.

Mr. Erickson said it is hoped to reach an agreement between the union and the company in a meeting. He said, "I am satisfied that an agreement between the union and the company can still be reached."

More than 100 union cab drivers are affected in the dispute.

Knowledge of Meat

Doesn't Win Case

Yesterday's breakfast is no different in size, value and taste to today's breakfast, according to Dr. J. H. Mason, crown prosecutor.

But his knowledge of breakfast didn't win him conviction today when John Thomas Cunningham, of 1008 36 street, appeared in court on a charge of being in possession of stolen meat.

Allegation was that Cunningham, a beef-order for Canada Packers Ltd., privately sold a quantity of meat belonging to his firm.

No one, however, identified the meat and at wholesale prices at that of the packing company, it didn't win the case, said the superintendent of the Edmonton plant.

There are certain commodities which, unfortunately, cannot be identified, said Mr. Mason.

Magistrate A. J. Miller decided there was insufficient evidence against Cunningham and dismissed the charge.

Voracious Wolves Plague Province

Rats Are Also Reported Moving in From the East

Coyotes, wolves and rats are plaguing Alberta government officials these days.

There'll be a conference at the legislative buildings tomorrow to deal with wolves and coyotes, and J. H. Brown, provincial entomologist, is getting more and more worried about the rats now only 20 miles from Alberta's eastern border.

Officials of the department of lands and mines meet representatives of agricultural, sporting and commercial groups tomorrow to discuss methods of dealing with wolves which have been playing havoc with big game and stock in large sections of the province.

Mr. Brown pleads with Albertans to keep on the alert for rats. "Kill and report," are his terse instructions.

Attack on Comic Books

The 13th annual convention of the Alberta Federation of Home and School Associations, meeting at Olds next week, will consider a resolution asking for an amendment to the Criminal Code which will outlaw crime comic books.

This direct attack on these vicious and trashy publications will have the support of most people in Alberta.

If these things are harmful, as they appear to have been proved to be, there is no reason why they should not be declared illegal.

In short, this proposed direct attack on the filthy stuff is the logical and natural step to be taken.

It is all very well and necessary to look for means of supplying children with substitutes for comic books.

It is all very well to employ devious methods for keeping them away from children.

But if they are wrong and harmful, they should not be offered for sale.

And responsibility for keeping them off the newsstands devolves just as heavily upon the government of Canada as upon parents and teachers.

It is an offence under the law to offer poison for sale without proper safeguards as to its use.

What is the sense of restricting the sale of poison and permitting the sale of war and violent publications that pollute the mind?

There is little difference between the two.

And Nothing Can Be Done About It

By Webster

DORA, I'VE GOT A GOOD IDEA. GO FOR THIS. I'VE TOLD IT AT LUNCH TODAY. AN ROLLED CUP.

ALL I WANT IS A ROLLED CUP. I'VE TOLD IT AT LUNCH TODAY. AN ROLLED CUP.

WELL, IT SEEMS A FARMER WAS TELLING ABOUT IT. PRO HE OWNED THAT ATE A STICK OF DYNAMITE. IT DIDN'T BOTHER HIM ANY UNTIL HE RUBBED AGAINST A ROCK.

THE EXPLOSION THAT FOLLOWED DEMOLISHED AN ENTIRE BLOCK IN THE VILLAGE. IT WAS MIGHTY FARMER. FOR A COUPLE OF DAYS WE HAD AN AWFUL SICK PIG ON OUR HANDS.

YOU MEAN TO SAY THE PIG WAS ONLY SICK? I SHOULD THINK THAT EXPLOSION WOULD HAVE BLOWN IT TO SMITHERS.

War Threat at Its Peak

While no one need accept the belief that war between Russia and the democracies is inevitable, experts seem to agree that the hypothetical danger of war will reach its peak in the period between the signing of the North Atlantic Pact and the steps taken to implement the obligations of that document.

The North Atlantic Pact offers a threat to Soviet Russia's plans of aggression in Europe.

Therefore it is reasonable to believe that if Russia plans to strike she will strike before the signatory nations are ready to fulfil their pledges of mutual aid.

This appears to be the view of General Omar N. Bradley who is calling for a military and program in Western Europe.

It is the expressed view of Stanislaw Woycik of the Polish Peasant party.

It is the idea of Dr. William Orlif Stapledon of London.

The point is that an attack by Russia will be impossible after the North Atlantic Pact goes fully into operation.

Therefore, if Russia wishes to fight an aggressive war, it is now or never.

It is a serious question as to the value of the North Atlantic Pact as a security measure if it is given the fullest consideration.

In Canada, as in the United States, it has a further implication also demanding grave consideration.

That implication is the effect of organized Communism on the continent in the event of sudden war.

It seems absurd that at the very moment when the war threat, if there is a threat, is at its peak, a political party known to favor Russia in the case of a conflict, should be permitted to pursue its subversive and disloyal activities protected by the law of the country.

Surely the time for the outlawing of the Communist party in Canada has arrived.

Secretory About Defence Plans

The refusal of Defence Minister Claxton to make public details of Canada's defence establishment will be applauded by the people of this country.

With the international situation in the present critical stage, it is not surprising to find the government taking steps to prevent disclosure of its defence plans.

It is a possibility, of course, that these leaders have already been taken into the confidence of the public and that they are making political capital out of an exceedingly delicate subject.

If it is not so, Mr. Claxton has been remiss in parliamentary courtesy.

It is all very well to employ devious methods for keeping them away from children.

'Jew' and 'Israeli' Defined

The American Council for Judaism is to be commended for its timely definition of the proper use of the terms "Jew" and "Israeli" which have been used loosely and incorrectly, on this continent as interchangeable words.

This organization, in its publication "The Council News," says that the word "Jew" properly describes a member of a religious group whose adherents live all over the world.

"Israeli," on the other hand, can be used only to describe citizens and institutions of the State of Israel who may not be Jewish at all.

The distinction is overdue. Every Israeli is not a Jew and every Jew is not an Israeli.

It seems that soap operas are indulging people to use so much soap and soap products that it is becoming a habit. I do not pretend to understand it, but I am sure that it is a waste of money.

What is the sense of restricting the sale of poison and permitting the sale of war and violent publications that pollute the mind?

There is little difference between the two.

Does Not Expect Any Third World War At Present

This is one of the last articles I did write before leaving for the United States. I am sure that it will be of interest to you. I have taken the liberty to fill the gap in the news from abroad.

But before I go, I want to put one thing very clearly in record. I do not believe that there is any danger of a third world war at present.

On both sides are looking to the Atlantic eventually, but not now. We did get through the war, but we did not get through the war. We did not get through the war. We did not get through the war.

Evil Man By Man

The most dangerous thing in the world today is that the "war" is inevitable.

No man-made evil is inevitable. Evil is only inevitable if it is forced upon us by the forces of nature.

The greatest job that anyone can do is to prevent the forces of nature from being forced upon us.

From Today's News

Having signed the Atlantic Charter, we immediately came up against the uncomfortable fact that the Atlantic Charter was not a treaty, but a declaration of intent.

We have part of our answer in the "Army Day" addresses by high brass from the United States Army, which were given in a meeting which could only be described as a "show of force."

It is clear that American troops are being sent to Europe as long as the war lasts.

Allied Intelligence Finds Nazi-Like German Cells

FRANKFURT, April 7.—(AP)—Allied Intelligence reports showed today that a wounded ex-Communist has built a super-nationalist German political party on the ashes of Nazism.

Town by town, county-by-county, the rightist DRP party rises to dominate the occupation powers and practically everything non-German.

OLD NAZI COLORS
The standard attraction at party rallies is the signing of "Deutschland und Thier Allies." The decorations are red, white and black, the old Nazi colors. The chief speaker appears in a costume that includes black riding breeches and mirror-polished black boots.

And, according to Allied intelligence reports, the party has all the trappings and many of the principles of Adolf Hitler's National Socialism.

Leader of the growing movement is Werner Wolfgang Fack, a 25-year-old Goettingen University student. Severely wounded during the war, in which he won a battlefield commission, Fack leans heavily on a cane during what Allied officials call his "Nationalistic" tirades.

PALS WITH NAZIS
An ex-Communist who opposes everything non-German, Fack got around with former Nazi SS (Elite Guard) officers and says the only persons worthy of governing Germany today are "those who served their fatherland as soldiers at the front."

The party has blossomed in the backwoods of lower Saxony in the British zone, near the Russian zonal border. Its "capital" is Wulfsburg, the model town of 30,000 that Hitler ordered built a decade ago to house workers of the Volkswagen "People's Car" factory.

It has carved out a fiefdom in about 30 counties of the British zone. Still not ready to operate in wider fields, it has chosen to build its strength post-by-post, intelligence officials said.

Coast Guard Hunts Derelict Schooner

NEW YORK, April 7.—(AP)—The Coast Guard today hunted a mysterious "P" type Buickman schooner in heavy seas off the South Carolina coast. The two-masted, 60-foot schooner, apparently deserted, was sighted rolling in rough seas about 70 miles off Charleston by the tanker Richard J. Cleveland.

The second Weiland canal, 20 1/2 miles long, was completed in 1947.

Red Plans for Revolt Revealed by Witness

NEW YORK, April 7.—(AP)—Party members were taught that the Communists would seize control of the government by "a violent revolution to be carried out by bands of armed workers against the existing state," according to testimony of a witness at the Communist conspiracy trial.

UNDERCOVER MAN

The witness, Herbert A. Phillips, 35, a Boston advertising man, mounted the witness stand in federal court yesterday, revealing that he had been the FBI's undercover man in the Communist party for nine years.

The bespectacled Phillips, slightly built and studious looking, will continue his testimony today.

He was the second government witness to be called in the 12-week trial of 11 Communist party leaders charged with conspiracy to learn and advocate the violent overthrow of the government.

Phillips said he joined the Communist party in 1944 and was a member of the professional group, district No. 1, of the party in Massachusetts. His party card was introduced in evidence.

He said the same year, while taking a training course for future teachers of Communism, a teacher named Faust Hartman defined the projected Communist revolution as "a violent revolution to be carried out by bands of armed workers against the existing state."

Jews Reject UN's Jerusalem Plan

TEL AVIV, April 7.—(HUP)—Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion today rejected "once and for all" the United Nations proposal that Jerusalem be internationalized, informed government sources disclosed.

At some time, Ben-Gurion refused to discuss a settlement of the refugee problem on any basis other than exchange of Israelis for Arabs, the sources said.

The premier laid down his terms at a meeting with the United Nations Palestine conciliation commission here. The commission was scheduled to leave for Jerusalem later today.

Israeli sources said Ben-Gurion told the commission he was willing to discuss outstanding issues but not Arab military commanders.

The Israeli government has been transferring government ministries and departments to the Holy City in what many observers interpret as an open bid to make Jerusalem the capital of the new Jewish state.

At present, the Holy City is divided between Jews and Arabs and is directed by separate Israeli and Arab military commanders.

The bespectacled Phillips, slightly built and studious looking, will continue his testimony today.

He was the second government witness to be called in the 12-week trial of 11 Communist party leaders charged with conspiracy to learn and advocate the violent overthrow of the government.

Phillips said he joined the Communist party in 1944 and was a member of the professional group, district No. 1, of the party in Massachusetts. His party card was introduced in evidence.

He said the same year, while taking a training course for future teachers of Communism, a teacher named Faust Hartman defined the projected Communist revolution as "a violent revolution to be carried out by bands of armed workers against the existing state."

HAIR OF PRINCE WON'T STAY DOWN

LONDON, April 7.—(AP)—The infant Prince Charles got his picture in the newspapers again today—and refused to smile for the birdie. It was his third set of pictures since his birth four months and 21 days ago. The pictures showed that his mother, Princess Elizabeth, and the nurse have the usual trouble keeping his hair combed. The infant prince was dressed in lace.

Salesman Faces 10-Year Term

HONOLULU, April 7.—(HUP)—Francis N. Kehringer, 70-year-old liquor salesman who was brought here from the United States for trial, faced a possible 10-year prison today for the 10-and-run death of a 17-year-old youth.

Kehringer was convicted yesterday of killing John F. Colburn here last Aug. 20. He will be sentenced April 22. Maximum sentence is 10 years.

The salesman was arrested in Westbrook, Conn. after Colburn died.

Jews Reject UN's Jerusalem Plan

TEL AVIV, April 7.—(HUP)—Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion today rejected "once and for all" the United Nations proposal that Jerusalem be internationalized, informed government sources disclosed.

At some time, Ben-Gurion refused to discuss a settlement of the refugee problem on any basis other than exchange of Israelis for Arabs, the sources said.

The premier laid down his terms at a meeting with the United Nations Palestine conciliation commission here. The commission was scheduled to leave for Jerusalem later today.

Israeli sources said Ben-Gurion told the commission he was willing to discuss outstanding issues but not Arab military commanders.

The Israeli government has been transferring government ministries and departments to the Holy City in what many observers interpret as an open bid to make Jerusalem the capital of the new Jewish state.

At present, the Holy City is divided between Jews and Arabs and is directed by separate Israeli and Arab military commanders.

Red Plans for Revolt Revealed by Witness

NEW YORK, April 7.—(AP)—Party members were taught that the Communists would seize control of the government by "a violent revolution to be carried out by bands of armed workers against the existing state," according to testimony of a witness at the Communist conspiracy trial.

UNDERCOVER MAN

The witness, Herbert A. Phillips, 35, a Boston advertising man, mounted the witness stand in federal court yesterday, revealing that he had been the FBI's undercover man in the Communist party for nine years.

Rollins vs Robertson Duel In EAC All-Star Puck Tiff?

O'CONNOR OBTAINS RELEASE FROM BUFFS

Attention John Duery and Frank Wolfe: Des O'Connor, it has been learned, will be available to play his third-base talents with one of the Edmonton entries in the Big Four tour.

Through the efforts of our southern Alberta undercover agent, who has been busy casing the Calgary area for the past while, it has been ascertained that O'Connor, who third-based it in fine style for Calgary Buffs over the past couple of campaigns, has secured his release.

Since the 1945 Big Four schedule ran its course O'Connor has gone into business in Edmonton.

The third-sacker, believed to be the only Big Four baseman ever to crack six hits in seven trips to the plate (he turned this trick at Renfrew one night last summer) was unavailable for comment at a late hour last night.

In a sense the affairs of a trio of goalkeepers—Keith Woodall, Al Rollins and Earl Robertson—were closely woven together during the hockey season just drawing to a close.

Woodall had succeeded Rollins in the Flyers' net. For his part Robertson turned up in the camp of the Carleton Place Islanders. The one-time NHL great practiced his craft in the back of the net.

WOODALL TO THE END

Over some pressure on the part of those who never quite warmed to Woodall's efforts failed to win a chance to play Robertson. It was Woodall to the end—the bitter end as Flyers failed to cop off a single game in the WCHL final against Regina.

Woodall, bent on getting married and otherwise engaged with off-season affairs, has returned east for the summer. But Al Rollins, freshly returned here on a visit after a fine season with Kansas City in the U.S. league, and Robertson, who makes his home here, are around and about.

And it could be that a Rollins vs Robertson, semifinals duel is in the cards for the Arena within the next few days. Officials of the Edmonton Amateur club still anxious to stage their annual amateur exhibition game, will decide definitely sometime today whether or not the match will be played.

ROLLINS GETS MAN?

Possibly a decision by Rollins as to whether or not he will play after his announced departure for the States a few days will be one of the deciding factors. As well president Al Anderson and aide expert word.

If Rollins, ex-EAC defenceman now with Montreal Canadiens, agrees to fly to Edmonton to play with the New York Giants, it may be a case of a man on a stand over a while night it seems almost certain the game will be played, possibly Tuesday.

So it might be that Rollins and Robertson, who have been playing from Flyers, junior EACs, Mercury and have teams will see action yet before Jim Paul has the ice removed from the big east-end rink.

Chamber Praises Graham's Mercurys

Members of the council of the Chamber of Commerce at their weekly meeting last night took time to compliment the success of the late Jim Graham's Mercurys.

A resolution was passed congratulating Graham for his success in the 1945-46 season. It was also decided to mention his record booky title this season.

BUT LEAF HAS SOME TOO

ST. CATHARINES, Ont., April 7.—(CP)—Tommy Major Leafs have to make off a season-long job if they hope to win their third straight Stanley cup over Detroit Red Wings.

The high-powered Wings, who steam-rolled the National Hockey league championship before knocking off Montreal Canadiens in the cup semifinals, were too much for the Leafs' defense. They won seven games in Toronto with the other two tied. And they outscored the Leafs 32-21.

But Leafs have some chance on their side. The New York Rangers, who won the 1945-46 season, lost to the Red Wings in the 1945-46 season. They have lost to the Red Wings in the 1945-46 season. They have lost to the Red Wings in the 1945-46 season.

BRANCH RICKEY ... On talent hunt.

JOHNNY MIZE ... Brooklyn-bound?

Rickey Rumored After Giants' Johnny Mize

TULSA, Okla., April 7.—(UP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers continued to struggle with their first-base problem yesterday by shipping one hopeful rookie, Red Fondy, off to the Fort Worth, Tex., farm team and then calling up rookie Chuck Connors from Montreal.

The recall of Connors, a 300-hitter in the International league last season, came as a surprise since club president Branch Rickey and his son Branch Rickey Jr., conferred yesterday presumably about attempts to get a first-baseman (possibly Johnny Mize) in a deal with the New York Giants.

Rickey, Sr., left last night for Sacramento, Cal., by plane, but he kept the trade rumors buzzing by saying he would stop on the way to see manager Leo Durocher of the New York Giants.

He hadges, current first-basemen, struck out three times yesterday as the Dodgers concluded their unbeaten series against Tulsa legions by beating the Tulsa Oilers, 10-6 behind Joe Hatton's three-run pinch hit.

Pitching is not as in Lindell. He started as a hurler in 1906 and won 17 games in his first season. Six years later he advanced to the Yankees on the strength of a brilliant 24-4 season with Newark.

Sure-Fire Amateur Bouts for Tonight

MacDonald To Battle Riddell; Oscar Kruger Meets Dahms

The Hughie MacDonald-Gordon Riddell meeting in the middleweight division and the Oscar Kruger-Gerry Dahms bantamweight clash should prove feature attractions at the northern Alberta boxing championships conclude at the Stock Pavilion tonight.

The MacDonald-Riddell rivalry is long standing while Dahms, battling in defence of his provincial crown, likely will be hard pressed to turn back the fast-improving Kruger.

First bout goes at 7:30 o'clock. Arnold Edwards, 100-pounder, will be fighting dynamite from Amber Valley, scored the only knockout at the championships got underway.

Buddy McDonald Wins via TKO

Only other spot of rationing came in a 100-pound bout between Buddy McDonald and Fred Buehn, both of Edmonton. Referee Jack Berry stopped the contest in the third round and raised McDonald's arm in victory when it became apparent that Buehn was hopelessly outclassed.

The other 25 bouts on the card were the full three-round distance. George Hart of Red Deer, winner of the featherweight novice division, was scheduled to fight Jim Fleming of Edmonton. The crowd took exception to the decision, as it appeared that Hart had adopted some of the rough tactics of his brother. Ringside experts chalked his 'slip' up to enthusiasm.

Hornby Brothers Enter Finals

Another brother act, Jack and Ken Bell, Hornby of Barabed, had a determined assault on the honors by the northern entry. Jack entered the 80-pound final while Ken qualified for the 90-pound win-win in all-out of towners, rackety up 12 wins.

Jack Barry and Tiger Fisher capably handled refereeing chores. Bob Clark, trainer for the Grande Prairie contingent, was a one-time provincial finalist in the welterweight class.

There was a disappointing crowd in the pews with the gate reaching a smallish 1200. Jim Cowan, president of the Edmonton Amateur Boxing and Wrestling association, says that unless a miracle happens the Diamond Belt competition, western Canada boxing championship, originally scheduled for here will end up in Vancouver. Seems the necessary $4000 out is too tough.

Eskimos or Oilers Still is Big Question

Maybe—someone jumped the gun in the matter of whether or not Edmonton's entry in the Western Football conference definitely had been named 'Eskimos'.

That it would be Eskimos was the report out of Regina last week, following a meeting of the conference at which Hilt, Lorenz, Maynard represented Edmonton.

But it develops that Eskimos has not been definitely selected over 'Oilers,' or other proposed names. Edmonton's representatives of the club stated that original plan, Edmonton's participation in a gathering of the Touchdown club 150 members, might be carried through.

Also there was talk going on that the Eskimos have the team named at a gathering of the Touchdown club 150 members, might be carried through.

"Now Take It Easy, Joannie..."

The racing strip was deserted, of course. After all, it doesn't expect to find the haunches hard at it at four o'clock of an afternoon, not even if the spring race meeting was only a matter of 45 days away.

Thoroughbreds, unlike a lot of the guys who have been known to chuck it in on a so-called good thing, are members of an early-to-work breed.

In effect, they toll the flag-end of a graveyard shift. But if the racing strip was quiet and peaceful things were different in the barns yesterday afternoon. It was time to put on the feed-bag, for one thing. And up and down the row of stalls on either side equine heads bobbed impatiently. Here and there a hungry horse whinnied. There was the stamping of many steel-shod feet, the rattle of stall chains as the meal-tickets surged eagerly against them.

And now and then a man, clutching a fork loaded with hay, would stoop to walk under the chain and into the stall. He might, depending on his mood, gruffly order the occupant back out of the way.

But generally he spoke to the horse as you might to a child with a "Now take it easy, Joannie" . . . "No need to get excited, Sam?" or some such.

There's a pretty good understanding between a lot of these handers and their charges.

An Equine Blueblood

Trainer 'Blackie' Haman, a newcomer to these parts, somehow was a little ahead of schedule. Anyway most of his string had been fed. One of them—Pierrette—is a two-year-old by Jamestown.

She was purchased last November at the famous Rembrandt sale.

Haman led her from her stall. "She's a grand little thing," he almost purred. Only just broken, not too much known of whether or not she'll be able to run, say like her famous sire. But trainer Haman will know before too long.

One of these fine mornings he'll put an exercise boy on her. She'll be galloped and schooled in the intricacies of the starting gate and otherwise gotten ready for the race.

'Blackie' is pretty high on another newcomer, by name Kol Harar. Then there's O Varl San. Like Pierrette and Kol Harar this one will be campaigned during the coming season under the colors of Miss Rhona Christall.

"No winner trainers often settle on a nickname for their horses. Sometimes it's a word or two, or a phrase that's stuck in the head of his owner."

It's Going to Get Busier

More than 100 thoroughbreds are stabled at the exhibition grounds and the training grind is on in full force. Already the more advanced are being sent a quarter under full head of steam.

To quote veteran conditioner 'Casey' Jones: "This is the earliest spring we've had around here for training horses."

Johnny Kiplin, Kemo Inamasu, Bills and Pederson and more owners who call Calgary home, have long since shipped north.

Trainer Karl Robertson, who saddled Franks Mistake last year's Alberta derby, walked past a stall where a group of horsemen had congregated to watch one of their number bandaging the legs of a steed.

"Dear Frank broke a leg the summer's end of the group needed. And the popular Robertson went right along with the 'Cep.' He grinned back, 'guess I have to shoot 'em'."

Upwards of 400 more horses will arrive at the track in the next six weeks and the tempo of the pace accordingly will be stepped up. By May 24 the grounds will be a real hive of activity.

You see while all horse players must die broke" such is not always the case with those who settle for owning or training the hay-burners.

Even these latter can't hope to lay up much money against the rainy day. But they do a lot of fun trying, and the hours spent in rearing their charges for the long period of a summer's racing at least pay off in the fun and satisfaction there can be in getting a horse to race.

Lots of Facial Expression Here

EVERYTHING GOES in the picture but the fact is that the horse and jockey are both in a state of intense concentration. The horse's ears are pinned back, its mouth is open, and its eyes are fixed on the finish line. The jockey is leaning forward, his hands firmly on the reins, and his face is a mask of determination.

Smythe Faces Possible Court Fight Over C Form

STRATFORD, Ont., April 7.—(CP)—The much-debated question of whether National Hockey League clubs can sign minors to a contract and make it stick may be challenged in a Canadian court for the first time.

Said to be willing to test it in the courts was served yesterday by president Harold W. Smith of the league's junior and hockey club. Control figures are Canadian hockey president and managing director of Toronto Maple Leafs and 37-year-old Larry Lavanoff of St. John's, who joined with Stratford this week.

The motion picture and sport world has long been known for its legal battles. In the case of the NHL, the issue is whether a player can be signed to a contract before he is 18 years old.

Now Owen is suing. Pasquale and Pasquale's lawyer, Pasquale, charges Owen with breach of contract. The former major league coach, who was fired by the Montreal Canadiens last year, is now coaching the minor league team in Stratford.

Not interested in turning the matter over to the courts, Owen has decided to sue Pasquale in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice.

Mortons 'Dead-Eye Dicks' Drubbing Winnipeg 44-17

By Jim Algo

When a basketball team makes 50 per cent of its free throws, its shooting average is considered good, according to Jerry Page, who had the overall spotlight for many years while coaching the famous Edmonton Grays.

So when Edmonton's Mortons made 12 out of 15 tries, they walked Winnipeg 44-17 last night in the first of a two-game total-contact western Canada senior inter-club series. Mort's Page tagged a "very good" to the performance of the Grays.

They made the championship. Mortons averaged 12 out of 15 free throws out of 40 attempts at the basket, while the Grays finished with 17 out of 40.

The whole team. Captain Gledes, Leming, and Gledes and Ray Maclellan turned in stellar performances by the Grays. Maclellan scored 12 points. There was none better than Maclellan when it came to flipping the ball through the hoop from far-away places. She scored the winners with four points.

Maclellan, who along with Leming checked the Grays into the final quarter, and Maclellan scored eight points and in general.

Went like the wind. The Grays were in a state of intense concentration. The horse's ears are pinned back, its mouth is open, and its eyes are fixed on the finish line.

Credit Unions' Assets Grow

The assets of the Credit Unions of Alberta have grown by $10 million in the past year, according to a report released by the Credit Union Central of Alberta.

The report shows that the total assets of the credit unions in Alberta were $1.2 billion at the end of 1967, up from $1.1 billion in 1966.

The growth in assets was due to a combination of factors, including a rise in deposits and a decrease in loans.

The report also shows that the credit unions have a strong record of profitability, with a net income of $1.5 million in 1967.

The Credit Union Central of Alberta is a non-profit organization that represents the interests of the credit unions in the province.

The central's president, Mr. J. D. Smith, said that the growth in assets was a reflection of the confidence that the public has in the credit unions.

He also said that the credit unions have a strong record of service to their members, with a focus on providing financial education and counseling.

The report is the first of a series of reports that the central will release over the next few months, providing a detailed look at the financial performance of the credit unions in Alberta.

The central's annual report is a valuable resource for the public, providing information on the financial health of the credit unions and the services they provide.

The central's president, Mr. J. D. Smith, said that the central is committed to providing the public with accurate and timely information on the credit unions.

He also said that the central is committed to promoting the credit unions as a viable alternative to banks and other financial institutions.

Beauty Ritual Kit Combats Weather

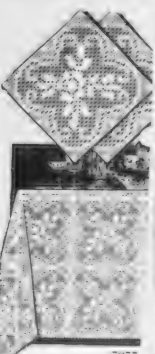

By Bea Thrifty

That night of April wind does tragic things to a poor girl's complexion.
But here's a splendid remedy in the beauty ritual that acts as a healing balm for your wind-worn complexion. It's a beauty ritual kit, produced by a well-known and reliable beauty firm, which is selling for a fine sum of $2.
It contains all ingredients, lotion, creams, make-up and all in a pretty pink box you can use for a trinket cabinet.

It's been prepared for dry, oily and teenage skins.

Accessories for fun this year! And the circular-aligator bags are cute as whippets for a mere $2.50.

They're the tapered "all-round," about five inches in diameter and come in green, red, brown, black.

Household Arts

But let me not through with this... there are more goodies... make-up... cream... and... for anyone who has a small...

Why Grow Old

By Josephine Lowman

A few weeks ago I had the privilege of talking with one of New York's most distinguished Dermatologists. I asked him about the prevention and correction of blackheads, since this is such a prevalent problem.

Then your thousands of letters come to "Why Grow Old?" from women whose beauty is marred by these little pests.

The skin specialist to whom I refer said "The face should be thoroughly cleaned with soap and water." This should be done several times a day. "Dry skin and an oily or very oily skin will cause blackheads." According to this authority the person with blackheads should have frequent washings and should be most careful to keep the comb and brush clean.

Too many people forget that same trouble can come from a soap suds in the hair. A shampoo should be used several times a week to keep the hair clean.

I then asked about lubricating creams for delicate skins. He said "Creams are necessary as one gets older, to prevent weathering of the skin." Therefore, take a firm one who knows, if you have blackheads, use a firm one.

Your Baby and Mine Spanking Not Answer To Punishment Need

By Myrtle Meyer Fidler

This column has made a consistent effort throughout the many years of its existence, to encourage mothers to use mild forms of punishment when needed and to abandon spanking.

As a parent I considered spanking as the only way to get a child to do what I wanted. I have since changed my mind.

The Rochester Health Institute, a program of psychological research for the children of the community, beginning at age 2½.

One of the questions parents have asked is, "How often do you spank your child?" Out of 248 parents asked only seven per cent said they never spanked; 59 per cent said they spanked occasionally; 34 per cent said they spanked frequently.

Only about half of the parents were available for questioning on how effective the punishment was, but 72 per cent of these said spanking was not an effective way of helping the child to learn.

Parents said that the child did when he was spanked the most frequent response was "being hurt or frightened." The next most frequent was that the child showed defiance, resentment, was mad, depressed and attacked others.

A few said the child got over it quickly and was "happy." Some said the child pointed, was afraid to go to bed or said he was sorry and promised to be good, or told someone he had been spanked.

Parents said they spanked because they wanted the child to know who was boss, because they were tired and stressed and needed a quick fix, or because they were angry and wanted to vent their anger.

It is plain that more parents spank a child because of the "feel" than because the child merits such drastic punishment. When it becomes a habit, it becomes a habit.

Spanking is a habit, it is a habit that can be broken. It is a habit that can be broken.

Apply Common Sense To Marriage Problem

DEAR MISS DIN: I have been married for five years and during that time I have been blissfully happy. But something has happened to my marriage.

I don't know just what it is, but that indefinable "something" is missing. The thrill seems to have gone from my life. My husband feels the same way about it. He has been restless and listless.

What is it all about? And what is the remedy?

ANSWER: What has happened to your marriage? Nothing at all, except that you have had a change in each other's minds and feelings.

But what of it? What does it matter? Nothing. Absolutely nothing. It is very natural and normal for a married couple to have a change in their feelings and attitudes.

So, when you are married, you are no longer a single person. You are no longer a single person.

Your partner has had a change in his feelings and attitudes. He has had a change in his feelings and attitudes.

At the approach of new love and the extra day of life, but that doesn't mean you should give up your life.

For no reason that I can see, you are no longer a single person. You are no longer a single person.

Red Assault On UN Opens

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., April 7.—(BUP)—Russia today opens a major attack against the west in an effort to block United Nations action on recent trials of church leaders in Eastern Europe.

CERTAIN TO FAIL

The Soviet campaign was certain to fail in the 14-nation UN steering committee since a majority already had voted to refer the matter to the investigation of the trials of Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty in Hungary, and Protestant clergies in Bulgaria.

Continuing efforts of the Soviet bloc to fight the inquiry were conducted single-handedly yesterday by chief Polish delegate Julius Kats-Suchy. He forecast the Russian loss by charging that UN intervention would be illegal inasmuch as the issue was an internal one handled by Hungarian and Bulgarian courts.

'NOT TOO DEEPLY'

The United States and Britain are hopeful that the Assembly will not go too deeply into the trials against the two satellite nations. They want an expression of concern and interest from an assembly over alleged violation of human rights by Hungary and Bulgaria to lay the groundwork for further action in the UN next fall.

Official Sees Hope For Coal Increase

Only seasonal slackening of demands keeps Alberta's coal industry from "tremendous development," V. A. Cooney, secretary of the Domestic Coal Operators' Association said here today.

"Coal mining is now Alberta's second industry in revenue production for the province, but there would be almost no limit to its development if operators could be reasonably sure of uninterrupted operation throughout summer months," Mr. Cooney said.

As it is, operations slacken with warmer weather each year, as consumers have not yet been educated to take delivery of at least a part of winter coal supplies during the summer.

While in Edmonton Mr. Cooney will confer with officials of the newly-formed provincial Department of Mines.

Price of Lead Again Reduced

MONTREAL, April 7.—(CP)—Consolidated Mining and Smelting Co. of Canada Ltd. today announced a 4-cent reduction in the price of lead to 13 cents a pound. Prime price in the last year was 17 1/2 cents.

Price in Canada was reduced last March 25 by 1 1/2 cents to 15 1/2 for prime western.

BOND MARKET

MONTREAL, April 7.—(CP)—A firm undertone prevailed among long-term Dominion and Provincial issues on the bond market here today.

In municipalities, Montreal's were shaded while Vancouver was up in corporations.

Trading on the whole was heavier than last week, but offerings continued scarce.

True Hinted

BANGKOK, April 7.—Reuters—Karen tribesmen holding the 10,000 sq. mi. area, 10 miles north of Bangkok, were to sign a local surrender with the Burmese government, it was officially stated here.

Chippewa is an Indian word meaning "fearful pucker."

40-Day Battle Is Raging Deep Under Chinese City

NANKING, April 7.—(AP)—One of history's strangest battles is raging around Taiwan—deep underground.

For months 200,000 Communists have besieged the 270,000 Nationalist defenders of the island province capital, Taiwan is an important steel manufacturing city.

Marshal Tiao Hai-Shan, 66, Chinese general, declared his

Chinese Reds Step Up Drive

NANKING, April 7.—(BUP)—Communist forces followed up a reported demand for the unconditional surrender of Nationalist China today with stepped-up attacks threatening to drive the Yangtze river to envelop the whole country.

High official sources said the Communist attitude permitted no negotiation or concessions. It threatened the peace negotiations going on at Peiping, with a yes or no answer demanded by next Tuesday, informants said.

The government reported that a big force of Manchurian Communists was rolling into Hupeh province toward Hankow while 25 miles east of Nanking other Communist units smashed into the strategic river port of Hsiting.

The identification of the Communist attacks was believed aimed to back up the demand for the unconditional surrender of the Nationalist government, as reported by unimpeachable sources.

Giant Airliner On Way Home

SHANNON, April 7.—(BUP)—Pan American World Airways' Stralinbuser "Flying Cloud" is en route to Glasgow, Newfoundland today on the return leg of its inaugural Trans-Atlantic flight.

Fifty-nine persons, including a crew of 12, were aboard the double-decked luxury airliner when it headed west from here shortly after midnight GMT.

The Boeing-built plane encountered minor engine trouble on its maiden Atlantic flight, but when it landed here, only three of its four engines were operating. The fourth had been shut off because of trouble in an oil feed.

While declaring that war is not imminent nor unavoidable, top officials of the army, navy and air force laid heavy stress on the need for unified preparation now as they joined in the country-wide observance of Army Day.

NEW UNIFYING TRY

They spoke out on the eve of a new attempt to weld the country's three armed services into a better team, again and operations of the unifying agency. This effort is to be made under direction of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower at closed-door sessions with the joint chiefs of staff starting today at Key West, Fla.

President Truman himself pointed up the new unity drive by telling chairman Millard Tydings (Dem., Md.) of the senate armed services committee he is anxious to bring about a "complete team at home." Truman talked with Tydings at the White House before the senate committee opened hearings on the president's plan to give the secretary of defense specific powers to enforce the unification program.

BRADLEY STRESSES NEED

The need for greater emphasis on team strategy and operations was set forth Tuesday night by Gen. Omar N. Bradley, army chief of staff, in calling for action now to strengthen American members of the Atlantic Pact. He said a New York audience:

"I know of no other expenditure that can produce greater security at a more reasonable cost than investment in a timely defense of the borders of western Europe."
